HIDDEN TREASURE + WHEELCHAIR FRIENDLY on 1.10HA

From the time you enter through the electronic front gates (solar powered) you know that this is a property with both style and charm, a real hidden treasure. Drive past the large dam with it's own fountain just to impress, then park in one of your 3 lock up carparks.

This beautiful Queenslander built around the 1930s was moved from Rode Road Nundah to resettle here in 1992. It still has all of it's original charm with higher than 12 foot ceilings. Large skylight in the lounge room gives light and fresh feel. Polished timber floors throughout. Newly renovated bathroom and country style kitchen, gas stove and fireplace, all add to the charm of this property.

Ceiling fans throughout, large verandah at the side of the property overlooks the dams and takes advantage of the cool afternoon breezes. Small back verandah is a wonderful warm spot for winter mornings and overlooks the back gardens.

The 1 bed, air-conditioned self- contained relocatable donga is
