The open plan dining/lounge area opens out to a sunny wrap around veranda. Both bedrooms come with built-ins and timber blinds. Add to this a surprisingly generous bathroom and an internal laundry.

The single lock-up garage has rear access to the adjoining undercover entertainment area, which could easily double up as a carport to accommodate a boat, trailer or just storage.

Sanctuary Village residents enjoy the full use of all the park facilities, including two well maintained in-ground pools, tennis court, BBQ areas and a children's play area. The well equipped amenities hall is available for private functions, as well as catering for the Park's very active social club.

Sanctuary Village is within an easy 3km drive from the beautiful seaside village of Lennox Head.
