

186/249 High Street, Hastings, VIC

COULD THIS BE IT?

Nestled in a peaceful no-through street adjacent to a reserve, the property boasts a stunning entrance as you walk past the landscaped gardens through the rose covered arbour and up the steps leading to the front deck. Upon entering, you are greeted by a living room adorned with beautiful fittings and a vaulted ceiling. To your right, a spacious kitchen with wall oven offers ample storage, complemented by a separate dining area that overlooks the picturesque front gardens. This home is further enhanced by its inviting atmosphere, making it a truly delightful place to live. The two well-appointed bedrooms provide generous space, each featuring walk-in robes. This residence also includes a separate laundry, with more cupboard space and separate toilet, as well as a bathroom equipped with a built-in shower, heating and a skylight that floods the area with natural light.

As you walk outside to the expansive outdoor undercover area you can imagine hosting summer barbecues or simply unwinding in privacy while reading your favourite book or watching the sunset.
